Introducing a Great New Way to Stay in Touch!

Alameda Municipal Power (AMP) is launching a new service designed to keep you apprised of the latest information on the topics that matter most to you. With “AMP News Updates,” you decide the topics that pertain to you—whether it is Undergrounding, Energy Efficiency Programs & Rebates, Solar, Electric Vehicles, or the Public Utilities Board—and AMP will email or text you whenever there’s information to share on that topic.

SIGN UP FOR AMP
NEWS UPDATES

To sign up, visit www.alamedamp.com and click on “AMP News Updates.” From there, you’ll create an account, choose to receive your updates via email or text, and indicate your topics of interest. And you’re done! There’s no cost to join. Just sit back and enjoy relevant news updates from AMP on a periodic basis. Need to modify your subscriptions? Simply return to the form at any time!

What a great way to stay in touch with AMP!

Encinal High’s Robotics Team Powered by AMP and You

The Robotics Team at Encinal High School is an afterschool program that encourages students to develop an early interest in engineering and technology. Last year, this program was on the brink of being withdrawn. Today, thanks to a financial boost from the Power Up for Learning (PUFL) program, the team is together again and preparing for their next robotics competition.

PUFL is a joint program of Alameda Education Foundation (AEF) and Alameda Municipal Power

Members of Encinal High School's Robotics Team demonstrate their machinery for AMP's general manager, Glenn Steiger.

(AMP) that supports technology education in our schools through the generous support of AMP’s customers. Customers simply designate an amount to be added to their monthly electric bill and AMP collects the donations and provides them to AEF. To learn how you can support technology in our schools, visit AMP’s Power Up for Learning web page (www.alamedamp.com/power-up-for-learning) to access our online registration form.

Spotlight on Power Box Art

Have you had a chance to see all of the Power Box Art transformers? If not, you can pick up a map at local retailers on Park Street or at the AMP Service Center, 2000 Grand Street. The map provides details on the transformer locations and the fabulous local artists who made it all happen. For more information, visit www.alamedamp.com/art.

Title: Conserve Water

Artist: Nancy Crookston

Location: Parking lot on Webb Street between Park Street and Everett

LED Giveaway—What's Not to Love?

Last month, AMP mailed over 60,000 LED light bulbs to Alameda households!

Did you receive your complimentary pair of LED bulbs, specifically designed to lower your electricity use and reduce Alameda's greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions? If so, why don't you put up a post on our Facebook page and tell us how you crushed your GHG emissions with the LEDs? Need more LED bulbs? Visit your local Encinal True Value Hardware store (located at 2801 Encinal Avenue), happily carrying the same LEDs you received in your mailbox, and purchase a few extra for the rest of your home! For more information, visit www.alamedamp.com/myAMPLED. 🌱

AMP's Advanced Meter Pilot Program Underway!

Last month, AMP kicked off its Advanced Meter Pilot Program with the installation of new meters at Alameda's 300 largest businesses and 200 residential homes. This new technology will enhance the reliable service we provide and help pilot participants better manage their energy use and lower costs. For more information, visit www.alamedamp.com/advancedmeters or email us at AMI@alamedamp.com. 🌱

Get Smart! This Earth Day and Become an Agent of Global Change!

AMP is partnering with local action groups, businesses, and other city departments to celebrate the 45th anniversary of Earth Day with an ingenious new theme:

Get Smart! Join us at the annual Alameda Earth Day Festival, where adults and children alike can enjoy free games, giveaways and get smart about environmental sustainability.

The City of Alameda's Earth Day Festival takes place on Saturday, April 25 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Washington Park. For more information, visit www.alamedamp.com. 🌱
